Biography

Born in 1980 in Istanbul, Dülger holds two bachelor's degrees in composition from Istanbul University and Vienna University of Music, two master's degrees in instrumental composition and electroacoustic composition from Vienna University of Music, and a doctorate from Boston University. Throughout his education, he has been a student of Mete Sakpınar, Wolfgang Suppan, Wolfgang Musil, Michael Obst, Karlheinz Essl, Chaya Czernowin and Joshua Fineberg.

His works, ranging from solo pieces to orchestral and ensemble pieces with live electronics or acoustics, can be described as post-musique concrète instrumentale, focusing on sound as an evolving object. Dülger's music has been performed by various ensembles such as Jack Quartet, Arditti Quartett, Omnibus Ensemble, Airborne Extended, etc. at various festivals such as Donaueschingen Musik Tage, VNM Festival, Kalvfestivalen, Weimar Spring Music Festival, etc. since 2001 in Turkey, Austria, Germany, USA, Mexico, Italy, Sweden, Slovenia, Canada.

Dülger has been financially supported by Fulbright, Viktor Bunzl, CYDDV, Boston University, Vienna University of Music and received various awards such as Cepromusic, Auftakt, Sound Icon, Francisco Escudero, Theodor Körner Prize, Torre Della Quarda. An associate professor at Anadolu University, he is the Head of the Composition Department and a member of the Istanbul Composers Collective.
